

Travel and Health in Older People

A Guide for Health Professionals

World travel and health in older people

A Guide for Health Professionals

Editor.

Iain B. McIntosh

Authors

Julie Gallagher MBChB. DTM. MFTMRCPS(Glas)

Iain B. McIntosh BA(Hons). MBChB. DGMRCP. FFTMRCPS(Glas)

Guest Contributors

Commissioned by the executive committee
British Travel Health Association

Authors

Julie Gallagher

MBChB. DTM. MFTMRCPS(Glas)

General Practitioner. Has travelled extensively and runs an Adventure and Tourism Travel Health Clinic in Edinburgh.
Former work in several Infectious Diseases Units in Scotland, in the field in Africa and Asia and as doctor for commercial companies and the Youth Development charity, Fulcrum Challenge,
A Founding Director of the Alliance for Rabies Control.
Executive Officer and Honorary Treasurer, British Travel Health Association, and Editor of the Association's publication Travel Wise.

Iain B. McIntosh

BA(Hons) MBChB. DGMRCP. FFTMRCPS(Glas)

Author of books and research papers on travel related medicine.
Co-founder, executive committee member and past Chairman of the British Travel Health Association. Editor in Chief of the BTHA Journal and Travel Wise.

Former General Practitioner and Hospital Practitioner (geriatrics)
Established one of first British travel health clinics. Extensive travel experience over seven continents.

Expedition doctor,
air repatriation physician and travel health consultant.

A Travel Health Guide for Older Travellers

CONTENTS.

Chapters

1. The senior traveller. Statistics and current status
Physiological effects of ageing on the individual.
Psychological and physical effects of travel.
- 2 Health risk abroad-identification, assessment and management in the travel health consultation and clinic
- 3 Travel related illness and trauma. Infection risk and avoidance – tropical disease and malaria
- 4 Pre-travel vaccination, and prophylaxis
- 5 Air travel and associated illness: stress, anoxia, venous thrombosis
- 6 Physiological effects of land and sea travel
- 7 The effects of –pre-existing illness and functional disability.
- 8 Travel to exotic and inaccessible places, and extremes of latitude and altitude
- 9 Trauma risk, emergency facilities, repatriation and insurance
Need for protection against tetanus, hepatitis, HIV infection
- 10 Medication ,prophylactic side effects and interactions,
- 11 The cardio-compromised traveller
- 12 The pulmonary compromised traveller
- 13 The confused elderly traveller
- 14 The diabetic traveller
15. Travel health aids, associations etc. for patients and professionals